I. God often takes us through times of adversity to bring us to a place of utter dependence upon Him (v. 7)

⁷Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from exalting myself!

II. Our natural response to adversity is to pray for it to go away (v. 8)

⁸Concerning this I implored the Lord three times that it might leave me.

III. God’s answer is GRACE (v. 9-10)

⁹And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.” Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. ¹⁰Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ’s sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.
